There is different protocol if you do change your mind depending on the type of membership you have chosen.

1.2.1 Prepaid Membership:

1.2.2 Direct Debit membership:

The cooling off period of a direct debit membership is 14 days. Your membership will be cancelled immediately and you will be charged a $35 administration fee. Any time after this period the cancellation policy as specified on your membership agreement applies.

2 What you need to know about your membership?

2.1 Your Prepaid Membership

2.1.1 When do you pay for your membership?

A prepaid membership is paid in full upon signing the membership agreement, and at the price quoted by the Manager or reception staff. This payment may be done by credit/debit card, cheque or in cash.

2.1.2 Can you freeze your prepaid membership?

You are able to freeze your membership for a period anywhere between 2 weeks and 4 months. This amount of time on hold is then added to the expiry of your membership.

2.1.3 Can you cancel your membership?

Unfortunately you are not able to cancel your prepaid membership and no refunds can be made, unless within the cooling off period (See section 1.2).

You are however able to transfer the remaining time of your membership to a family member or friend. This requires written confirmation from the current member either via email or in person. A $35 administration fee will also be charged for the transfer.

2.2 Your Direct Debit Membership

2.2.1 How will you be debited?

You are debited for the fortnight in advance by the bank account or credit card details you provided us with on your membership agreement, and as per your direct debit request service agreement.

The debit day for every direct debit member is every second Thursday. If this day falls on a Public Holiday then we will debit your account the following business day.

2.2.2 What do you need to do?

You are responsible for:

- Ensuring your account is able to accept direct debits;
- Making sure there is enough money in your account for the payment to be made;
- Telling us in advance if any changes are made to your direct debit details.

2.2.3 What if a direct debit payment fails?

If a membership fee is returned unpaid then you will be responsible for:

- Financial Institution charges incurred by North Shore Gym as a result of the unpaid debit and a late payment fee of $8.00 for each unpaid debit;
- The next debit date may be double debited including the late payment fee.

If you have any queries about payments during your membership then please let us know.

2.2.4 Can you put a freeze on your payments?

You are able to freeze your membership for a period anywhere between 2 weeks and 4 months and there is no limit on the amount of times you can do this in a year. All membership freezes must be made via written notice and cannot be completed over the phone. A freeze on your membership must be notified in advance and cannot be back dated.

Whilst on freeze your membership payments drop to the administration fee of $0.50c per day, and this is debited fortnightly on the scheduled debit dates. If the freeze period is not in exact fortnightly blocks then you may find that your first and/or last frozen payments will be a pro rata amount dependant on your return date.

2.2.5 Can the terms of your agreement change?

We cannot guarantee that we will not need to add to, change or remove Rules, conditions of membership, including but not limited to the Membership Terms and Conditions, opening and closing hours and the service and facilities offered by the gym from time to time. Any such deletions, additions or changes will be notified in writing with at least 30 days' notice via email, letter, our website or signage throughout the gym.

North Shore Gym reserves the right to increase your membership fees at any time after the initial period of your membership has ended.

2.2.6 How do you cancel your membership?

Your direct debit membership and all payments associated with your membership will continue until we receive written notice of cancellation, either at the gym or via email, fourteen days in advance. If you have joined on the Month to Month (Non Contract) Membership then all that is required is fourteen days written notice of cancellation counted from them next debit date (i.e the last direct debit paid must be paid).

If you have joined on the 12 Month Membership and are cancelling within your initial term, then you will incur a $100 early exit fee. The initial term of your membership is specified on your membership agreement, and may be extended for all months your membership was on hold for inside the initial term.
